

May, 2010 Update from Brad Shrum

Team,

I hope you all are doing well! I wanted to give you all a brief update about how God has use this last semester to draw students to himself. Below is a link to a video we shot at IUPUI's last weekly meeting. We had over 200 students show up, and in the mix more than 20 got to briefly describe how their lives have been changed just this last semester. Please, please, please follow the link and be encouraged.

You are making a difference. As always, thanks for your prayers and support.
