

Travis Hamilton has served as One Mission Society's Chief Financial Officer for the past five years. His roles include managing the Finance Department, budget preparation, and financial reporting to the President and Board of Trustees. Travis enjoys traveling to the mission field to help with field finances and to encourage the missionaries there. Travis attends Southside with his wife, Maranatha, and their children, Joseph and Charis. Travis also serves as an Elder for Southside Bible.